Admiral R. A. Spruance, USN
President
Naval War College
Newport, R. I.

My dear Admiral Spruance:

Captain Howe has just been in to see me, and I am happy to signify my acceptance of your invitation to address the War College session on Tuesday, 7 September 1948, at 11 am, on "Coordination of Federal Intelligence Agencies and the CIA." It is always a pleasure to come to the Naval War College, and I shall be looking forward to this visit.

With best personal regards, please believe me,

Sincerely,

26 May 1948
